

Global Perspectives Film Series

featuring
Deaf Jam

Thursday, January 25
Noon, ACB 240

In Deaf Jam, Aneta Brodski seizes the day. Aneta is a deaf teen introduced to American Sign Language (ASL) Poetry, who then boldly enters the poetry slam scene, becoming one of the first deaf poets to compete in a spoken-word slam. In a wondrous twist, Aneta, an Israeli immigrant living in the Queens section of New York City, meets Tahani, a hearing Palestinian slam poet. The two young women embark on a collaboration/performance duet - creating a new form of slam poetry that speaks to both the hearing and the Deaf.

Free pizza will be provided to the first 30 attendees!

This event is free and open to the public. No RSVP is necessary.
