The Suicide Tourist

In this film Academy Award-winning filmmaker John Zaritsky offers a revealing look at a couple facing the most difficult decision of their lives—to seek the help of Dignitas, the Swiss non-profit organization that has helped over one thousand people die since 1998. Viewers bear witness as one Chicago native makes the trip to Switzerland for what will become the last day of his life. This film asks the question concerning life and death that has been debated for centuries—Do we have the right to end our lives if life itself becomes unbearable, or when we enter the late stages of painful, terminal illness?
