Diversity Experiences by 2nd Year Medical Students in the Himalays, Mexico, and India

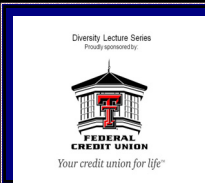

Mohit Joshipura and Shruti Gohel will lecture on their experiences in India. Joshipura is the Chairman of The Dil Se (Hindi for “From the Heart”) Foundation, which is a student-run NGO involved primarily in medical outreach and awareness programs in rural India. They both volunteered for the Dil Se Foundation and participated in youth awareness and medical outreach programs in rural India.

Daniel Patterson’s lecture is about his recent volunteer work in Mexico City. Patterson worked at a clinic, the Clinica Condesa which is the main HIV/AIDS multi-specialty clinic for Mexico.

Shari Vance and Rachel Fosdahl will share their experiences of working in the Himchal Pradesh province of India (the Himalayas) with the Himalayan Health Exchange.
