Title: Visions of the Future: Healthcare in the Obama Era

Date: Wednesday, April 15, 2009

Time: 12:00 noon, CST (11:00 a.m. MT)

Location: TTUHSC Academic Classroom Building 120

As Congress debates the formation of a new healthcare system, alternative healthcare delivery systems are becoming the subject of intense scrutiny. If systems like the National Health Service (UK) and the Health Authority system (Canada) are templates for what healthcare delivery of the future might look like, then exploring those systems can better prepare us for the end products that might be implemented. This presentation will offer a comparative perspective on the US, Canadian and UK healthcare systems – focusing on their relative strengths and weaknesses.
